PERSONAL MENTION

Conductor A. P. Nash, is slightly improved today, but is still seriously ill.

Dr. E. N. Hutchinson, of the bureau of animal industry, is in the city on professional business.

Mrs. John Vert was taken seriously ill yesterday afternoon with an attack of appendicitis. She is at her home.

L. B. Reeder, who has been in the city for a few days visiting old friends, has gone to Idaho on a business trip.

Miss Hamrick, who has been giving embroidery lessons at Hotel Pendleton, will finish her work in the city tomorrow.

John Vert, formerly connected with the First National Bank, has resigned his position. Mr. Vert will remain in Pendleton.

Allen Winans, of Walla Walla, was in Pendleton yesterday. Mr. Winans is connected with the livery firm of McBride brothers.

A. B. Galloway, the genial representative of the Blake-McFaul Paper Company of Portland, is in the city today on business.

Arnold Schureman, formerly engaged in newspaper work in this city, has gone to Walla Walla, where he will work in the advertising department of the Evening Statesman.

George H. Foster, of Baker City, is a guest of Hotel St. George. He has just attended the funeral of his brother-in-law, J. L. Standage, of Milton, and is returning home tonight.

E. A. Klippel, superintendent of the O. R. & N. and Western Union telegraph, is in the city today, looking over the systems here with a view to completing minor improvements in the offices.

Librarian A. W. Nye, of the Commercial Association, went to Walla Walla yesterday on a brief business trip and is expected home tonight. Dick Nye is attending to the association parlors in his absence.

Miss Ollie Rigby, who is attending Willamette University at Salem, writes her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rigby, that she is well pleased with that institution and that her health is better in Willamette valley than it was before leaving Pendleton.

J. R. Grubb, of Holdman, is in the city today. He reports an excellent rainfall over that section of the county. Grain sown some time ago is growing nicely, and farmers are now rushing their seeding as rapidly as possible, while the ground is in good condition.

FINISHING THE SURVEYS.

Employees of the Reclamation Service Are Transferred From Malheur to Umatilla County.

The season's work in the reclamation service having been completed in the Malheur district, the surveying parties have been brought to Umatilla county, to assist in finishing the work here.

Harold S. Williams, and Robert Sears, of the Malheur force, have been transferred to the Echo project, for the purpose of assisting in finishing the season's work there, and N. S. Hamilton, Roland S. Hall, and Edward N. Smith, also of the Malheur project, have been transferred to the office of Engineer in Charge John T. Whistler, in this city, where they will assist in completing the office work here.

FORMER PENDLETON BOYS.

Enviably Records Made by Athletes Who Started Their Careers Here.

Former Pendleton boys are wearing laurels on athletic fields in other parts of the country nowadays. Ralph Glaze, who pitched for the Pendleton baseball club in 1902, is in Dartmouth college this year, and has made the football team. He played in a recent game between Dartmouth and Yale. Olen Arnsperger, formerly a local high school student, is jettisoning down an enviable football record for himself this fall. He is a member of the University of Oregon team and in the game with Berkeley secured favorable mention.

Judge Lowell Writes.

Mrs. S. A. Lowell has received a letter from Judge Lowell, written at San Francisco en route to El Paso. He said the Oregon party was enjoying a most pleasant trip to the irrigation congress. Only four delegates went from Oregon, Judge S. A. Lowell, of this city; A. King Wilson, and A. H. Devers, of Portland, and E. L. Smith, of Hood River. The press dispatches say the Oregon delegation was the first to reach El Paso.

Notice.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle at once as I have sold my grocery store.

FIRST OF A SERIES

TWENTY-FOUR GAMES OF BOWLING TO BE PLAYED.

League of Bowlers Comprises Four Teams of Five Members Each—First Game Played Last Night. Next Game Thursday Night, and Two Games Will Be Played Each Week for Twelve Weeks.

The first of a series of 24 games to be played by the Pendleton Bowling League, recently organized by local bowlers, was played at the Brunswick bowling parlors, in the new Matlock building, last night.

There are 20 members of the league organized into four teams of five each. A series of 24 games will be played to complete the series.

A prize of $20 will be given by Wade Siler, proprietor of the bowling parlors, for the team holding the highest score, and $10 to the team holding the second highest score at the end of the series.

Following is the schedule and score of the game played last night, with the names of the players:

Kelly's Team.
Kidder	141	129 158
Burchett	127	119 145
Bond	75	145 129
Hawley	116	109 150
Kelly	169	154 145
Totals	628	656 727

The following teams will play the next game on Thursday night, November 17:

Tallman's team—Tallman, Boettcher, Medley, Wyrick and Witcock.
Anderson's team—Anderson, Yates, Kees, Mays and Bollman.

JURY DISAGREED.

Plea of Insanity Made in Victor Roland O'Shea Case.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—The jury in the case of Victor Roland O'Shea, charged with the murder of his young bride two years ago, disagreed. O'Shea was a law student, unable to support his wife, who lived at home. He went to her house, shot his wife and then attempted suicide. The defense pleaded temporary insanity. The prominence of the parties calls general attention to the trial.

Diphtheria Closes Schools.

Spokane, Nov. 15.—Diphtheria has closed the public schools in two of the principal wards of the city. The quarantine is very rigid, and it is thought a spread of the epidemic will be prevented.

Two Men Killed.

Webb City, Mo., Nov. 15.—An explosion at the Independent Powder Works this morning instantly killed William Queen and Byron Branstetter, injuring two others.
